6. Action New Horizons Children's Academy is taking to, Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation, Advance equality of opportunity between different groups and Foster good relations between different groups

a) Pupils' attainment and progress

New Horizons Children's Academy expects the highest possible standards and holds high expectations for all pupils. Progress is monitored through regular assessment and reporting, with pupils expected to take responsibility for their learning, respond to feedback, and set personal goals. We monitor and analyse pupils' performance by gender, disability and special educational need and social background. Any identified disparities will be addressed through targeted interventions. The overarching aim is that each pupil achieves academically while developing the skills and attitudes essential for lifelong success.

b) The quality of provision - teaching and learning

All staff ensures the classroom is an inclusive environment in which pupils feel all contributions are valued. All possible steps are taken to include students who may otherwise be marginalized. We are mindful of students' experiences and starting points and we are responsive to pupils' different learning styles. The quality of provision in teaching and learning is reflected in purposeful, well-structured lessons that set clear objectives and provide appropriate challenge. Effective adaptive teaching ensures all learners are supported, while varied strategies and rigorous assessment promote engagement and progress. Strong provision fosters high expectations, resilience, and enthusiasm for learning, enabling pupils to achieve both academically and personally.

c) The quality of provision - curriculum and other activities

New Horizons Children's Academy provides an appropriate curriculum for pupils of all backgrounds. We monitor and evaluate its effectiveness through target setting and attainment. The curriculum builds on student's starting points and adaptive teaching is used to ensure the inclusion of:

- Boys, girls and other gender identities
- Students learning English as an additional language
- Students from minority ethnic groups, including Gypsies and Travellers
- Students who are gifted and talented
- Students with special educational needs
- Students with a disability
- Students who are in public care
- Students who are at risk of disaffection and exclusion
- Lesbian, gay or questioning young people

Each area of the curriculum is planned to incorporate the principles of equality and to promote positive attitudes to diversity. All subjects contribute to the spiritual, moral, social, and cultural development of all pupils. Our curriculum content reflects and celebrates diversity, encouraging pupils to explore bias and challenge prejudice and stereotypes. Our extra-curricular activities and special events e.g. school productions and performances, cater for the interests and capabilities of all pupils and take account of parental preferences related to religion and culture.

d) The quality of provision – guidance and support

New Horizons Children's Academy actively promote good personal and community relations and recognising diversity as having a positive role to play within our school. All staff are expected to foster a positive atmosphere of mutual respect and trust among our students from all ethnic backgrounds and range of abilities. Staff challenge stereotypes and further develop students' critical awareness and concepts of fairness, enabling them to detect bias and challenge inequalities.

Our pastoral support takes account of religious, cultural and ethnic differences, special educational needs, disability, as well as the experiences and needs of Traveller pupils, refugees and asylum seekers' children. The school provides appropriate support for students learning English as an additional language and students are encouraged to use their home and community languages to enhance their learning. Victims of harassment and bullying are given appropriate support. The perpetrators are dealt with in line with school policy and are provided with relevant support to consider and modify their behaviour.

e) Behaviour and Attendance

We, as a school, expects high standards of behaviour from all students, appropriate to their developmental level. We follow our behaviour policy for managing behaviour, ensuring that it is fair and applied equally to all. All staff as expected to operate consistent systems of rewards and consequences. It is recognised that cultural background and disability may affect behaviour. We will take this into account when dealing with incidents of unacceptable behaviour and we will support all students to behave well.

Clear procedures are in place so that all forms of bullying and harassment, including racism and harassment related to disability, sexism and homophobia, are dealt with promptly, firmly and consistently and are in line with policies and guidance such as those for anti-bullying and dealing with racist incidents. All forms of harassment are recorded, monitored and dealt with in line with the schools' bullying and harassment and behaviour policies. All staff are trained to deal effectively with bullying, racist incidents, racial harassment and prejudice and are offered support in handling such matters.

We encourage staff to explore their own views and attitudes to difference and to monitor their practice in relation to this policy. Adults in school take care to lead through example, demonstrating high expectations of all students.

We monitor exclusions by gender, ethnicity and special educational need. Background is also considered. New Horizons Children's Academy will take all reasonable steps to prevent the exclusion of a student for a reason related to any disability they may have.

Students, staff and parents are aware of policies and procedures for dealing with harassment. They know that any language or behaviour, which is racist, sexist, homophobic or potentially damaging to any minority group, is always unacceptable. Information and advice on attendance and exclusion is made available to parents/carers in accessible formats such as relevant community languages and large print.

We make provision for leave of absence for religious observance, for staff as well as students

We monitor attendance by gender, ethnicity and special educational need. Background is also considered. Action is taken in order to address any disparities between different groups of pupils.

The school will fully support children with long-term medical needs who may have an erratic attendance because they are in and out of hospital.

We expect full-time attendance of all pupils regardless of their ethnic background.

f) Partnership with students, parents, carers and the wider community

We monitor parental involvement and look to raise participation of under-represented groups of parents and sections of the community. Information and meetings for parents are made accessible for all. We encourage participation of under-represented groups in areas of employment. e.g.: through work experience placements and volunteering.

Progress reports to parents/carers are clearly written and free from jargon to encourage parents to participate in their child's education. Where necessary information is available in languages and formats other than English, if requested. Parents with a disability or with learning difficulties will be able to access school's information.

Parents are fully involved in the school-based response for their child with special educational needs, understand the purpose of any intervention or programme of action and are told about the parent partnership service when SEN is identified.

When necessary, we work in partnership with parents and the community to address specific incidents and to develop positive attitudes to difference.

Our premises and facilities are equally available and accessible for use by all groups within the community.

g) Leadership and management

Steps are taken to ensure the school's admission process is fair and equitable to all pupils, including short-stay Traveller and Refugee pupils and those with English as an additional language.

This school does not discriminate against a disabled student in the arrangements it makes for determining admission. We will admit students with already identified special educational needs. Students with statements of special educational needs will always be admitted unless, through the statutory assessment process, it is demonstrated that the students' inclusion would be incompatible with the efficient education of other children.

Comprehensive information about students' ethnicity, first language, religion, physical needs, diet etc. is included in admissions forms and gathered at admissions interview.

The school adheres to recruitment and selection procedures which are fair, equitable and in line with statutory duties.

We welcome people from under-represented groups to apply for positions at all levels in the school and ensure recruitment and selection processes are monitored. Equality and diversity issues are reflected in our school's employment practices.

Everyone associated with the school is informed of the contents of this policy. All staff and visitors must support the ethos of the school, promoting equality and challenging bias and stereotyping wherever they observe it. We will ensure that staff training continually highlights equality issues. Equality is incorporated in the induction programme for new staff.

The skills of all staff, including non-teaching and part-time staff are recognised and valued. All staff are given status and support and are encouraged to share their knowledge.

Staff and visitors provide a wide range of role models, and the school strives to reflect the diversity of the local and wider community.

New Horizons Children's Academy opposes all forms of racism, homophobia, prejudice and discrimination.

h) Linguistic Diversity

We welcome the diversity of languages in our school and we give them all status and value. We look for opportunities to use our languages to enrich the curricular experience of all our pupils and we draw upon the expertise of our school community wherever possible.
